FOR SARAH G. GALLAGHER Class of '03

Author Richard Bach said, "When you come to the edge of all the light you have known, and are about to step out into darkness, Faith is knowing one of two things will happen; There will be something to stand on, or you will be taught to fly." Have this faith as you step out into the world.

You are at an amazing time in your life. It is a bit scary, but so exciting. We are very proud of all you have accomplished in your college years. More than your academic achievements, we are delighted with the responsible, caring, inquisitive young woman you have become. Five days into your fall semester in Paris we watched you struggle with all the shock and fear that September, 2001 brought all of us — and we were so proud of the way you coped and stuck out the program. We got to watch you make life-long friends, many of whom we have come to love also.

Sarah - We know it is hard for you to leave the safe and happy existence you have had at Wheaton — but this is not an ending; rather this is a beginning. Eleanor Roosevelt said "The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams." We will always be there to support your dreams with unconditional love. We are your biggest fans. Always believe in yourself and learn from your mistakes (we all make them!). A final anonymous quote for the day:

"Success is getting what you want;
happiness is wanting what you get."

Much love -
Mom & Dad

JESSICA WEISBARTH

You can achieve it.
If you can dream it,
You can become it."

Your inner strength, your beauty, your courage, your intelligence and your sense of humor will serve to be your stepping stones as you continue on the journey of a lifetime.

We love you with all our hearts!

Mom, Dad and Andy

Jessica,

Your future knows no limits,
The love in your heart knows no bounds,
Your wit, humor and wisdom is inspiring,
